Bible Verse: Psalms 1:1-6

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers. Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Parent - Teacher Connection

I hope and pray everyone had a truly joyous holiday. I did, but I have to say I am always so excited to see my class, I miss them.

Thank you for the wonderful Christmas gifts and the outpouring of appreciation. I have the best job in the world! I always feel so loved, thank you.

We have open house this Saturday. Come by and see what your child has been up to. We have projects and writing assignments we have done in class on display. We will also be fishing again. Funny how the small things make big statements.

There is a permission slip in the folder for our play on January 13th. We will be going to see The Ransom of Red Chief. I realize the calendar has a different date and play, but this is going to be great.

There is also information about an opportunity that came our way. We were invited to the opening of Disney's Nature: Chimpanzees. I have the information in the folder. This is not a permission slip, I just need to collect the $6.50 because payment is due in advance. Please send only a $5, $1, and 2 quarters. It is difficult to pay a bill with smaller change x 42 people. Thanks!
